

Business Climate

Nova Scotia has an ever-expanding variety of innovative companies doing business across the province and across the globe.

TESTIMONIALS

"We know what makes the difference here is we work together in a partnership. We work with government, we work with schools, and we work with NSBI. NSBI is focused on building partnerships and they are committed to working with industry and to make a difference for us. So that's what allowed us to grow. That's what will continue to allow us to grow and evolve, and really the key is partnerships."
